David Young made note of the letter submitted by KCC regarding the now withdrawn planning application 24/00655/FUL Land At Drumore Wood, and outlined that there were points included that were not discussed at the monthly meeting. There were observations made about improper tree works; David Young wanted to confirm for the record that this was not the case and presented the below email from (Neil McFarlane, Forestry Commission Scotland):

Friday, December 20, 2024

Dear Ciaran,

Representatives of Scottish Forestry met with Mr & Mrs Young at Drumore Wood today. We can confirm, that following an assessment of the site, that there has NOT been any unauthorised felling in the area of Drumore Wood by Gartness Road.

If you have any queries please do not hesitate in contacting me, please note I am on leave now until 6th January 2025.

- Presentation from Sharon Marklaw

Sharon's presentation is available on KCC website www.killearncc.org.uk - http://www.killearncc.org.uk/docs/misc/Killearn_CC_Presentation_150125.pdf

Following the presentation, the floor was opened to questions from the audience, please see below an overview of the points covered:

- Any planning submissions that may be of community interest require a formal response within 7 days, this deadline sometimes isn't possible with the scheduled meetings
 - Sharon can be contacted for an extension if required
- KCC doesn't usually get involved in householder applications but concerns can be raised should the aesthetics of a project affect the community, or a loss of trees
 - Sharon outlined that there is an imminent tree and woodland strategy review to increase tree coverage. There is a new position being filled in Sharon's team for someone with experience in biodiversity to help support in this area.
- A concern was raised around ensuring that the LPP and LDP were cohesive and worked together when it comes to planning
 - Sharon highlighted the importance of everyone in the community getting involved in the Local Place Plan. There is a balance needed between development and areas being enhanced with tree planting.. Communities are being given a voice through their LPPs and it is important to work together.
- A question around enforcement and how that process works as it seems challenging

- Sharon highlighted that it was not a waste of time, it is just a long process. It is important to give people enough time to fix the problem and for Stirling Council (SC) to follow the correct procedures to ensure it doesn't end up in court. They don't want to waste taxpayers money by getting it wrong.
In the first instance the Council can impose fines - but this is not always an effective means of resolving the situation.

- Discussion over the removal of protected trees prior to a planning application being submitted
 - Sharon outlined that they can't review historic action as part of a planning application so unfortunately should this happen there is no means for SC to reject said application. Sharon asked the community for help in identifying at risk trees.
- A question was raised around planners and consultants knowing each other and the system feeling unbalanced
 - Sharon outlined that it is an incredibly small community so everyone knows everyone however all of the planning officers work with professionalism and integrity.
- Local Nature Conservation Sites (LNCS) were not mentioned in Sharon's presentation?
 - Sharon outlined that as part of the LDP they are currently evidence gathering. There will be a bigger presence and influence with the new biodiversity role but until then SC can only use their available resources.
- In regards to development and housing, concerns were raised over previous extensions that were out of keeping with the village aesthetic. Policy 2.12 outlines that scale size is subordinate and sympathetic to the house and landscape yet they were still approved
 - Sharon was unable to discuss particular projects in detail but offered to take the conversation offline so that the details could be reviewed. It was highlighted that the approval report will include the justification and that a senior planning officer would have been involved in the decision making process.
- Sharon outlined that SC is processing multiple applications every day. There is an increased complexity with new aspects being taken into account. The Scottish Government has outlined that 80% of applications need to go through within a certain time frame. Roughly 5-10% are refused. The SC planning department wants to work with applicants to help them get approval.
- A suggestion was made to have 1x planning officer assigned to Killlearn to ensure consistency
 - Sharon agrees this would be a good idea but it is difficult to 'pigeonhole' someone. From a career aspect, all planning officers need to have a mix of rural and urban experience to progress within their profession.

Thanks were expressed to Sharon for her presentation and valuable input.

In response to a comment from a resident at the meeting - a reminder from Michael Bowdidge for all those in attendance to be respectful when addressing a member of the council.

Cllr Rosemary Fraser expressed thanks to Sharon Marklaw for her presentation and highlighted that she is also available should there be any questions or concerns with planning applications.

- TPO (Tree Preservation Order)
KCC has been in touch with the TPO officer to review and extend certain areas. Awaiting confirmation on when this will happen.
